Twenty-Fifth International Conference on Grey Literature
"Confronting Climate Change with Trusted Grey Resources"

GL25 Silver Anniversary Conference Moderators

Brian Bales
INIS-IAEA

Tamsin Vicary
ASFA-FAO

Day One

Brian Bales is Coordinator (Unit Head) of the International Nuclear Information System (INIS) at the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) in Vienna, Austria. INIS is an open access repository for nuclear science and technology literature that has existed for more than 50 years and has over 132 member states and organisations. Brian's areas of interest are digital preservation, information management, and artificial intelligence to foster knowledge sharing, innovation and progress. Previously, he worked for the archives and records section of the UN's International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals (IRMCT) in Arusha, Tanzania, as well as an earlier 7-year assignment with the IAEA. He holds a Master's Degree in Information Technology from the University of Denver.

Day Two

Tamsin Vicary is a Fishery Officer based in Rome at the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations headquarters. Tamsin leads the ASFA Secretariat coordinating activities across the international partnership, including its database, thesaurus and communications materials. Her focus is on aligning ASFA's information products to the FAIR principles and ensuring the equitable dissemination of, and access to, fisheries research. She has a Masters in Library and Information studies from University College London. Prior to joining ASFA, Tamsin was Collections Manager at the Freshwater Biological Association, and in various knowledge management roles for organisations such as the Victoria and Albert Museum, the Science Museum Group, King's Fund, and PWC.

GreyNet International Award Recipient 2023

This year's Annual Award will be presented to Dr. SeokJong Lim for his work and that of his many colleagues at the Korea Institute of Science and Technology Information (KISTI) in the field of grey literature. Starting in 1999, GreyNet has archived video recordings, conference papers, journal articles, and posters by many authors and researchers from KISTI.

These include works by:

Dr. Cheol-Joo Chae
Dr. Hee-Seok Choi
Dr. Heeyoon Choi
Dr. Kiseok Choi
Mr. Kwang-Nam Choi
Ms. Seonheui Choi
Mr. Wonjun Choi
Mr. Jong Hyung Baek
Dr. Hyekyong Hwang
Ms. Mi-Hwan Hyun
Mr. Sung-Jin Jhun
Ms. Hyesun Kim
Dr. JaeHoon Kim
Dr. Jae-Soo Kim

Mr. Soon-Young Kim
Ms. Seon-Hee Lee
Mr. Chul-Su Lim
Dr. SeokJong Lim
Mr. Han-Chul Park
Dr. Hea-Lim Rhee
Dr. Tae-Sul Seo
Ms. Yong Ju Shin
Ms. Jiseong Son
Mr. Inseok Song
Dr. Yong-Hee Yae
Ms. Suhyeon Yoo
Mr. Beom-Jong You

Since 2013, the Korea Institute of Science and Technology Information is one of GreyNet's longstanding Associate Members. Likewise, a number of its staff have served on numerous Conference Program Committees throughout the years. Owing to KISTI's continued support, GreyNet International has been able to compile, develop, and sustain valuable information resources in the field of grey literature.

DANS Data Station Social Sciences and Humanities

GreyNet's Collection of Datasets are now archived in the DANS Data Station SSH

Datasets archived over the past years have been transferred from DANS EASY to the new DANS Data Station Social Sciences and Humanities (SSH). The new Data Station SSH offers great advantages and is primarily designed for user friendliness. It is now possible to update archived datasets during research or to share them with others. There are extensive possibilities to find and search datasets. Documents and images can be viewed directly. Metadata are provided in a wide range of formats and can be easily exported. It is also possible to cite individual files within a dataset. <https://ssh.datastations.nl/dataverse/root/?q=greynet>

Twenty-Fifth International Conference on Grey Literature 'Confronting Climate Change with Trusted Grey Resources'

OBA Congres • November 13-14, 2023
Oosterdokskade, Amsterdam, Netherlands

New to the Conference Program

Professional Development Forum

The Twenty-Fifth International Conference on Grey Literature seeks to bring new content to the annual program. GL25 will provide a platform for initiatives with marked potential for grey literature. A Professional Development Forum will accompany the Plenary and Poster sessions in order to complete this year's conference program. Information professionals and practitioners are invited to present and discuss special projects and activities in which their organization is currently engaged.

In order to participate on the Professional Development Forum, submit a working title and brief abstract by October 15, 2023 to conference@textrelease.com. Placement on the conference program also depends on the time allotted presenters. Upon receipt of your submission, you will be contacted with further details.

This mid-year business report is intended to provide a comprehensive, up to date overview of the workings of TextRelease and its International Grey Literature Network Service. TextRelease is an independent information and publishing bureau specializing in the field of grey literature and networked information.

GreyNet was founded in 1992 and re-launched in 2003 under the leadership and direction of TextRelease. Since its re-launch, it has developed into an international network capable of serving various sectors of government, academics, business and industry as well as subject based communities producing, processing, distributing, and preserving grey literature. GreyNet's mission is dedicated to research, publication, open access, education, and public awareness to grey literature, which requires now more than ever an infrastructure commensurate to its real potential.

Announcement

The Ontario Council of University Libraries - Government Information Community (OCUL-GIC) is pleased to announce it will be hosting this year's virtual fall/winter "Government Information Days 2023" from December 12-14, 2023.

By way of this Call for Presentation proposals as well as suggestions for speakers, we hope to reach those interested in government information. Please consider sharing 10 to 90 minutes of your time and knowledge about government information on any topic therein from any jurisdiction – Canadian or international. We are looking for lightning talks, plenary presentations, panel discussions, and other suggestions such as workshops, training sessions, etc.

If you know someone involved in the area of government information (a Librarian, archivist, journalist, public servant, scholar, etc.), please recommend this Call to them!

A virtual conference is the perfect opportunity to engage with government information colleagues across the country and further afield. Let's learn what these stakeholders are currently working on and let's celebrate our achievements.

Call for Proposals

- Please fill in the Proposal Form
- Please indicate if you would like to give a 10-minute lightning talk, a 45-minute presentation, organize a panel or deliver a workshop
- Proposal deadline is Monday, October 16th 2023

Questions? Please contact govinfo2023@gmail.com

We look forward to hearing from you!
